Report of Committee on Christian Literature.

The Sunday School literature has become a serviceable and practical power in every department.

No man can have a church and a world-wide view of Methodism unless he reads the Nashville Christian Advocate.

The Centenary of Methodist Missions demonstrated beyond a reasonable doubt the power of the printed page for educative preparedness organizing usefulness and mobilizing unification of the diversified resources of a great church.

The Quarterly review keeps before the thoughtful reader the most recent and best Christian thought.

The Epworth Era by actual trial in League meetings creates the Epworth League spirit and develops life, leadership and loyalty.

The New Orleans Christian Advocate should be appointed assistant pastor by every first Quarterly Conference. It makes 52 pastoral calls to each subscriber's home annually. It brings information and inspiration concerning every claim, interest and organization of our church. The most liberal and loyal, helpful and intelligent Methodists of our city and circuit churches are constant Advocate readers.

It means to crucify every good cause between two thieves to let our Advocate perish of starvation by lack of enough subscribers. No cause succeeds in this country without a live literature propaganda. The Americans are a newspaper-reading people

The H. C. L. affects the Advocate. The Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate advises your Conference Committee that it is indispensable to have not less than ten thousand paid subscribers to meet the extra heavy cost of publication, and proposes that the Louisiana Annual Conference quota be twenty-three hundred subscribers, divided by Districts as follows, both old and new subscribers:

Alexandria district	300
Baton Rouge district	300
Lafayette district	300
Monroe district	350
New Orleans district	300
Ruston district	350
Shreveport district	400
Total	2,300

Resolution:

Therefore, be it resolved, That this Louisiana Annual Conference instruct our Presiding Elders to distribute the aforesaid District quota among their respective charges at their District Stewards meetings and call attention to this Conference resolution during the first round of Quarterly Conferences.

P. H. FONTAINE, Chairman.

H. W. RICKEY, Secretary.

Briscoe Carter was called to the chair.

Report of Committee on Evangelism.—A. S. Lutz read the report of the Committee on Evangelism which was adopted as follows:

Report of Committee on Evangelism.

Your Committee on Evangelism beg leave to report as follows:

We have heard with delight the powerful and timely address of our Chief Pastors calling the Church to a church-wide revival of religion. We desire to record our most hearty endorsement of its every sentiment and earnestly recommend it to our pastors and laymen for their prayerful and serious consideration. It should inspire in our people a desire for the return of those labors and scenes of apostolic power which characterized the Church of our Fathers.

The timeliness of this address is attested not only by the crisis of the hour, and the cry of the world for light in its darkness, but also by the fact that the Church through its authorized channels of leadership is asking to promote a universal revival. It is in time with the deliverances of our presiding Bishops and our Home Mission Secretary, which have evidently struck such a responsive chord in the hearts of the members of the Conference.

Your committee is in hearty accord with the oft-recurring statement that the momentous hour has struck when the Church should address herself mightily to this one thing.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the plan prepared by our General Evangelistic Committee and supported by the Centenary Commission in keeping the recommendation of the Bishops; and that we solemnly pledge ourselves to pray and work for a revival in our charges and communities; and, as much as in us lies, to co-operate in bringing about a revival throughout our Church.

ALBERT S. LUTZ, Chairman.

THIRD DAY—FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1919.

W. F. Roberts Referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.—W. F. Roberts was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the supernumerary relation.

Report of the Committee on Prison Reform.—H. S. Johns read the report of the Committee on Prison Reform, which was received and ordered to record as follows, with the passing of the resolution submitted in the report:

Report of the Committee on Prison Reform.

To the Bishop and Members of the Louisiana Annual Conference:

Your Committee on Prison Reform begs leave to present the following report:

After careful investigation we find the number of prisoners in the Louisiana penal institutions to be 1355, and 908 released during the past five years on parole.

Of those released on parole, 88 have failed to live up to their obligation, 22 have been arrested and returned to prison, 66 are still at large with their whereabouts unknown.

This shows that ninety per cent of those paroled have made good, which is somewhat above the general average of prisons.

Our investigation also shows that the gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is regularly preached to the prisoners in the state penitentiary, and large numbers have availed themselves of its privileges, and literally hundreds of those paroled and discharged write back letters of their progress in the service of our Master.

We believe this service of ministry to those in prison beside carrying out our Lord's suggestion to visit those in prison, actually pays untold dividends to society in returning to the outside thousands who otherwise would become embittered, and might perhaps do things of a radical nature.

We therefore urge all of our ministers to visit the jails and provide reading matter both sacred and entertaining for the instruction of those within their reach, and above all to preach in the jails whenever it is possible to do so.

We cannot close this report without touching upon the subject of prevention, which we consider all-important.

The waste of crime in our state is enormous, more real than apparent. Because only a few in each parish may be in prison, we become accustomed to it as a matter of small importance, when, as an aggregate, the number of homicides, homes broken up, women and children left in destitution, and the years and years of valuable time spent in prison when the husband and father should be providing for them is appalling.

Therefore the necessity of prevention, and we should hail the day with delight for some specific society to be launched in our state having for its object the direct campaign for the prevention of crime.

We offer the following resolution.

Resolved, that, as prevention is better than cure, we hereby pledge ourselves to all efforts looking to the reduction of crime by preaching sermons on the observance of law and order, particularly the enforcement of laws looking to the suppression of vice and immorality.

Respectfully,

H. S. JOHNS.
C. A. BATTLE,
Committee.

Report of Board of Church Extension.

We desire to congratulate the Board of Church Extension on its outlook for the future through the help accruing to the Board through the Centenary Fund. We wish to stress the importance of literature furnished by Dr. Boaz, and urge the brethren to avail themselves of its use, as some very interesting and attractive booklets on Church Extension have been prepared, and it is our opinion that education as to the importance of this cause is most necessary.

We reiterate our request of last year that our pastors present the cause of Church Extension from the pulpits of our churches as often as practicable, and that the missionary features be especially emphasized. We wish to perpetuate the custom of sending representatives from the Conference Board to each of the District Conferences in order properly to keep the importance of our work before the entire Church. We request the Presiding Elders to grant the same courtesies to these representatives that they have in the past.

We have divided the funds at our disposal as seems best to us after mature consideration, and we submit the following donations:

Report of the Board of Temperance and Social Service.—The Report of the Board of Temperance and Social Service was adopted as follows:

Report of Board of Temperance and Social Service.

Among the many reforms and great movements of our time, there is none more significant and more intimately related to moral and spiritual uplift than Prohibition by legislative enactment, backed by public opinion, of the liquor traffic.

Our civilization had struggled through weary centuries with the deadly influence of this unholy trade in the souls of men.

Despite the evil results of subsidized capital, maintained not infrequently by a venal press and the mocking sneers of men who prated of personal liberty in the name of licentiousness, we hail the advent of a better day.

Let us not think, however, the victory altogether won by the recognition of these great modern movements in the interest of our sacred cause.

The educative forces must still be active, public opinion, the supreme arbiter of American life, yet cultivated; legislation, with authority to execute the penalties of violated law, is yet in large measure not enacted. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Louisiana Conference in session convened, do hereby recommend:

First—That we are grateful to Almighty God for all the victories won for temperance and against all manner of vice so closely related thereto.

Second—That as a body we pledge our loyal and devoted support to every national and state measure for the final suppression of the saloon and the many forms of vice so flagrant in many places.

Third—That we join heartily in the great reform measures of the W. C. T. U., the Anti-Saloon League of America, and commit ourselves to their support.

Fourth. That we recommend the Rev. A. W. Turner as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Louisiana, and that we open our churches to him and his accredited co-workers when called upon to do so.

J. W. FAULK, Secretary.

Report of the Bible Board.—P. O. Lowrey read the Report of the Bible Board, which was adopted, as follows:

Report of the Bible Board.

It has been the pleasure of your Bible Board to have with us in counsel Rev. J. J. Morgan, Superintendent of the Southwestern Agency of the American Bible Society, by whom we are informed that more than a million Testaments, bound in khaki, were given free to the soldiers and sailors during the recent war. The distribution was made chiefly through army chaplains, the Y. M. C. A. and the Salvation Army. In addition to this liberal donation the Society furnished large quantities of Army Scriptures at and below cost. This brought the total number of volumes distributed during the whole period of the war up to more than 4,500,000. This distribution was made to Europeans and Asiatics as well as to American soldiers. As a result of this liberal distribution of the Scriptures, it is reported that ninety-nine out of every one hundred of our boys who fell in battle were found either grasping the Book in their hands or with a copy in the pocket over the heart and that actual testimonies of the wounded and dying make a tribute to the Testament that is sacred and precious to all who love God and his blessed Word.

The total distribution of the American Bible Society for the year was a little more than 6,000,000 copies of the Scriptures, the distribution having been made through the nine Home and the twelve Foreign Agencies, and it is interesting to note that the largest demands for Bibles just now is from China.

The total annual circulation of the Scriptures through all the Agencies of the American Bible Society in the world now reaches a total of more than 32,000,000 copies. This means that a Bible is issued for every tick of the clock; and we are informed that the very room in which Voltaire in 1777 made his noted prophesy that before one hundred years the Bible would be a forgotten book, is now used as a Bible depository in France.

To aid in the program of reconstructing the world, the Bible Society plans work in France, Russia, Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland, and in other European countries which have been devastated by the war. Twenty-five thousand Bibles are now being sent to France, and urgent appeals are coming in from all parts of the world for the Scriptures.

The Southwestern Agency, including the Society's work in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, and presided over by Rev. J. Morgan, reports a distribution during the year of 83,973 volumes in thirty-five different languages, in our section of the South, in which work eight colporteurs have been employed, their work having been especially among the foreign-speaking people of this section—the orphanages, the leper colony and the penitentiary having been beneficiaries as their needs have demanded.

We recommend that our pastors preach on the Bible November 30, or as near that date as possible, this being Universal Bible Sunday, and to be observed by all Protestant denominations in the United States.

A pamphlet helpful in the preparation of this sermon will be mailed to pastors with suggestive programs for the proper observance of the day.

MARTIN HEBERT, Chairman.

P. O. LOWREY, Secretary.

Report of the Orphanage Board.—The Report of the Orphanage Board was read by C. E. Fike and adopted as follows:

Report of the Orphanage Board.

To the Louisiana Annual Conference:

Brethren—We your Conference Board, after examining the report of the Superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage at Ruston and of the Board of Directors of that Institution, concur with the Board of Directors in commending the work of the Superintendent, and recommend that the reports be adopted and recorded by the Conference.

A. J. COBURN, Chairman.

C. E. FIKE, Secretary.

(For Reports of the Superintendent and Board of Directors, see Appendix.)

Report of the Sunday School Board.—The Report of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted as follows:

Report of the Sunday School Board to the Louisiana Conference.

Your Sunday School Board has completed another year's work, and it has been diligent about the work of the church and its schools. It has been the purpose to use each member of the Board and make him responsible for something definite in Conference and District. This plan provides for Conference and District. Each district in the Conference has been organized with efficient laymen and laywomen as officers. Each district has its own activities, and when it has performed its task the whole Conference will be doing its work.

We ask that every presiding elder, pastor and Sunday school superintendent co-operate with the Conference Sunday School Board through its Field Secretary in promoting the work in the district and sub-district institutes.

The Sunday school of the church must be used of God to build up its constituency into genuine Christian character. No agency or organization of the church offers a better opportunity for service or will pay bigger dividends for expended energy than the Sunday school.

The Sunday school with an evangelistic program that provides for religious training and definite decision for Christ in the junior years, is the school that will consecrate its pupils to God and make them true to each other. We most urgently request each school to participate in the "Evangelistic Campaign" that began on November 1st with a membership campaign, and that we use every opportunity to prepare the schools to make the greatest gain in conversions and through consecration to Christian service. Your Sunday School Board endorses the "Campaign of Evangelism" in the Sunday school.

It is the sense of the Board that co-operation should be effected with the authorities of Centenary College in the development of a plan to give the Standard Teacher Training Diploma Course by correspondence, and to this end the Conference Sunday School Board is authorized to collaborate with the president of Centenary College, and with Dr. J. W. Shackford, the superintendent of teacher training of the General Sunday School Board, in the preparation of such a plan as will meet the present need of the field in this work. The Conference Field Secretary is asked to complete such a plan as soon as possible and to promote it as a part of the policy already operative in the Sunday School Teacher Training Work of the Conference.

We have supplied Sunday school literature in convict camps of the State, and have supplied Sunday school day programs to many schools. We have decided, however, to discontinue free distribution of Sunday school day programs.

We have asked the Bishop and his cabinet that he make the appointment of Rev. Monzo Early as Sunday School Field Secretary.

W. S. HOLMES, Chairman.

J. A. ALFORD, Secretary.

Report of the Board of Christian Literature.—Report No. 2 of the Board of Christian Literature was read and adopted as follows:

We hereby nominate as the Publishing Committee for the Louisiana Conference: Rev. J. M. Henry, D. D., Rev. J. F. Foster, Rev. S. J. Davies.

We recommend Armstrong Donaldson and Edwin Alvis to fill the vacancies caused by the removal of Paul Renshaw and H. H. Ahrens on the Board of Trustees of the New Orleans Depository.

P. H. FONTAINE, Chairman.

H. W. RICKEY, Secretary.

Report of the Epworth League Board.—The Report of the Epworth League Board was read and adopted, as follows:

Report of the Epworth League Board.

To the Members of the Louisiana Annual Conference:

The report of our General Secretary was before us and it is indeed gratifying to learn of the general success of the work throughout the connection. With the enthusiastic spiritual zeal and sane financial policy of the General Board there is no reason to expect anything but development along all lines. Our own State Epworth League Conference is fortunate in possessing among its officary men and women whose only aim is the upbuilding of the spiritual life of our young people. The League Assembly held at Mansfield, La., is destined to become a power for good to our Epworthians. In order that greater good may accrue to a greater number of people a movement has been launched to have said assembly more centrally located.

Be it therefore resolved:..

First—That we heartily co-operate with our General Board and State Epworth League Conference in all their plans for efficiency of Leagues.

Second—That we endorse and recommend the observance of Anniversary Day in all churches, whether they have Leagues or not.

W. D. KLENSCHMIDT, Secretary.

W. E. THOMAS, President.

Report of the Board of Education.—The Report of the Board of Education was read. Presidents R. E. Bobbitt of Mansfield College and W. R. Bourne of Centenary College spoke upon the interest with which they are charged. The report was then adopted as follows:

Report of the Board of Education.

All the signs of the times challenge the church to the task of Christian education.

On the one hand the disastrous outcome of German materialistic kultur and the present world-wide social unrest, admonish us of the necessity for a trained and consecrated leadership, which can only be developed through a training in which the processes of intellectual development are dominated by Christian principles and conceptions of life.

On the other hand, the unprecedented attendance at the schools and colleges of America, which is overflowing our church institutions, as well as others, offers to the church an opportunity to mould the young life of the country which we dare not neglect.

At the same time the period of prosperity through which we are passing and the accompanying tendency to think in larger terms, opens the way to secure the equipment needed for the task to which we are called.

This combination of circumstances lays a mandate upon us to dedicate a large portion of the wealth in the hands of the church to the adequate equipment of our schools, colleges and universities for the work of preparing for Christian leadership the great army of young people who are looking to us for educational opportunity and direction. Wisely did our General Conference make provision for a great church-wide campaign to raise some $23,000,000 for our educational institutions. We would call the attention of our people to the fact that this campaign as ordered by the General Conference will be inaugurated during the coming year, in May, 1920. We have no doubt that the same spirit which brought such large success in the Missionary Centenary Movement will secure the successful carrying out of the educational campaign, provided the practical and pressing need for Christian education is brought home to our people through all the agencies of the church. In order to accomplish this, it will be necessary for our preachers and leaders to co-operate with the plans of the General and Conference Boards in inspiring all of our people with the conviction that the church is under obligation to provide for the Christian education of her youth.

It is gratifying to learn that our universities are full to their capacity with students and are doing as well as possible, with the equipment at hand, the work for which they have been founded.

We note with particular pleasure the successful work and growing patronage of Southern Methodist University, to which our Conference is tributary, and are glad to record the fact that 66 young preachers are enrolled in its school of theology.

Our Conference colleges—Manasfield and Centenary—are enjoying unprecedented patronage, and the imperative demand for enlarged facilities and equipment is being emphasized by this prosperity.

We are delighted to learn from the report of Dr. Bourne, president of Centenary College, that already an enrollment of one hundred and seventy-two has been made during the present session, which is all that can be properly cared for with the present facilities. The rearrangement that has been made in the main building and the new administration building, that is soon to be constructed, will open the way for further enlargement of the capacity to meet the demand. These improvements, with the absolute necessity for greatly increased endowment to care for the maintenance of the college, must be provided by Louisiana Methodism to meet the challenge of a growing opportunity.

The report of President Bobbitt of Mansfield Female College shows a total enrollment of 203; 115 of whom are in the boarding department, taxing the capacity of the building to the limit, even after the recently erected dining hall added twenty-five or thirty to the capacity of the college.

The problem which must be met at Mansfield is to provide accommodation for an added patronage of 50 to 75, which should be solved at once by the addition of another annex.

In both our institutions the present challenge of success calls upon our people to make provision for a growing future.

There are alarming evidences of shortage in ministerial supply; especially a lack of men adequately equipped for the ministry. The causes of the shortage are to be found in a lack of spiritual vitality and in a failure of our educational plans to provide fully for the finding and training of our ministerial supply.

In view of the entire educational situation and needs of the church and of our Conference, we submit the following resolutions:

Resolved 1. That we most earnestly endorse the purpose of the Centenary Commission in inaugurating an evangelistic campaign throughout our church, and pledge the co-operation of our educational forces in this movement; and that we particularly approve of the plan of College Evangelism through which it is sought to secure the conversion of the students in our schools and colleges, and the enlistment of candidates for the ministry and the mission field.

Resolved 2. That we heartily approve as far as they have been made public, the plans of the campaign committee to begin the great educational campaign in May, 1920; and we trust that this campaign may make adequate provision for the needs of our Conference Colleges.

Resolved 3. That we rejoice in the increased patronage of Centenary College and its program of enlargement, and call upon our people to respond to its needs through the coming campaign.

Resolved 4. That the following members-elect of the Board of Trustees be and they are hereby confirmed: A. J. Peavy, F. E. Gunter, Dr. Luther Sexton, Rev. J. G. Snelling, J. A. Foster, Van Carter and Gus Palmer.

Resolved 5. That we commend to our preachers and people the adoption of the plan for the furnishing of scholarships by churches, Sunday school classes or individuals for the benefit of students at Centenary; and that we approve the plan for establishing a correspondence school at Centenary for the training of Sunday school leaders and other workers in our churches and Sunday schools; and we urge the addition as early as possible of a chair of Biblical instruction.

Resolved 6. That we learn with gratitude of the overflowing patronage of Mansfield Female College and recognize the necessity of enlarged facilities for its growing work.

Resolved, that the following be, and are hereby appointed, the trustees of Mansfield Female College: Clerical, R. H. Harper, C. D. Atkinson, P. M. Brown, K. W. Dodson, E. K. Means, W. L. Doss, Jr., C. A. Battle, H. N. Brown, A. H. Parker, J. M. Brown, A. S. Lutz. Lay: W. M. Pollock, W. W. Williams, A. M. Mayo, J. G. Palmer, S. G. Sample, N. R. Grigsby, N. W. Williams, W. S. Calhoun, Frank Hunter, C. B. Hicks, Dr. J. M. Middleton, S. A. Kidd, O. H. Jordan, R. E. Bobbitt, ex officio.

Resolved 7. That we urge upon our preachers and churches the observance of our Lord's injunction, "Pray, therefore, the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into his harvest," and that the call to the ministry and other forms of life service be kept before our people by the observance of Vocation Day in our Sunday schools and by sermons on the call to preach.

Resolved 8. That Reverends C. A. Battle, H. T. Carley, J. W. Lee be continued as a Commission on Religious Education.

Resolved 9. That Rev W. W. Drake be appointed to succeed himself as a trustee of Southern Methodist University.

Resolved 10. That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. W. W. Drake as Conference Secretary of Education.

Resolved 11. That a commission consisting of Rev. W. W. Holmes, C. C. Miller, R. H. Wynn, Messrs. F. E. Gunter and T. W. Holloman be appointed to act with similar commissions from the Mississippi and Alabama Conferences to consider the proposition to turn over the Seashore Camp Ground property to the three Conferences, and report to the next session of our Conference.

Resolved 12. That we commend to our people, particularly in the New Orleans District, the Seashore Camp Ground School as an academy for boys in preparation for College.

W. WINANS DRAKE, Conference Secretary.

Report of Committee on District Conference Records.

To the Bishop and Members of the Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren—Your Committee on District Conference Records begs leave to report as follows:

All the journals, except that of the Baton Rouge District, were examined and their condition is thus noted: Ruston, neatly written, but lacks the marginal references and full official roll; New Orleans, Shreveport and Alexandria records are models of neatness and order.

The Lafayette register lacks the complete official roll, and the Monroe record fails to distinguish the clergy from the laymen when the roll was called at the opening of the session.

We are pleased to record that there is a noticeable improvement in the keeping of these journals in recent years.

Amendo to Report No. 3 of the Board of Missions.—An amendo to Report No. 3 of the Board of Missions was presented and went to record as follows:

Amendo to Report No. 3 of the Board of Missions.

The Board of Missions appropriate $1,500.00 to the Memorial Home of New Orleans.

A. J. GEARHEARD, Secretary.

Report No. 2 of the Board of Missions.—Report No. 2 of the Board of Missions was adopted and went to the record as follows:

Report No. 2 of the Board of Missions.

The Board of Missions feels keenly the weight of responsibility placed upon it because of the forward step taken by our church due to the coming in of funds from the Missionary Centenary Campaign. It is not disposed to rush forth wildly and spend money unless it is satisfied that money is needed and that it will aid materially in advancing the Kingdom of God.

The Board is pained at the report furnished it of abandoned churches. It earnestly recommends that the presiding elders take knowledge of these abandoned churches within their districts, and that they be revived if possible, and that the presiding elders furnish to the Conference annually a list of abandoned churches or classes, together with the number of church members on the rolls of said churches or classes. The Board fears that the church loses sight of hundreds of Methodists through the abandoned or neglected churches.

The Board takes knowledge of the great Missionary Centenary movement that has been consummated in our midst, and commends the faithfulness of those men and women to whom the duty of carrying out its plans were committed. The Board is in hearty accord with the conservation program of the church.

There is no doubt but that a minister must maintain respectability in the community where he lives and serves, and to do this he must receive a sufficient compensation. The Board urges the presiding elders to press home to the stewards of churches and charges an appeal to make the minimum salaries $700.00 per year for single men and $1,200.00 for married men.

It has been represented to the Board that property is available for the establishing of a home for delinquent boys and girls, and that with proper encouragement the money may be secured for its maintenance. The Board is disposed to look with favor upon the opening of such an institution in Louisiana if it can be done without becoming a claimant upon the already overstrained funds of the Board of Missions.

The Board gave careful consideration to the paper referred to it concerning the industrial unrest and the need of the church entering upon a vigorous campaign in behalf of evangelizing the great un-churched masses. The Board has no doubt about the report that there is unrest and that most of it emanates from the inflamed minds of unbelievers. It is persuaded, however, that the sin of greed permeates society from center to circumference, and that the strikes and riots among the working people are but symptoms of the real disease of consuming covetousness. The church can have no part in a fight against people, whether of one party or another, but the fact that there are unchurched masses in the industrial centers, and that the laboring man, in large numbers, evades the very shadow cast by the church building, and that the spirit of doubt and distrust and infidelity is being promulgated by mistaken leaders, prompts the Board to call the ministers and all Christians in Louisiana to go into the by-ways and highways and with a mighty voice call sinners to repentance. The Board will promote the work of evangelism in the industrial centers as rapidly as its men and money will permit.

The Board recommends the election of C. M. Roberts of Minden as a member of the Board of Missions in the place of W. M. Spinks who has removed from the state.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. GEARHEARD, Secretary.

Report of Superintendent of Orphanage.

To the Presiding Bishop and Members of the Louisiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage, I beg leave to submit the following report for the current Conference year:

The progress made by this institution this year has been most gratifying in every way. We have received considerably more money than any other year of the existence of the institution, and we have had more children housed, provided for and being educated than ever before.

The institution has received during the past year in money and other things of value the sum of $39,351.52; while its total expenditures amount to $29,155.96, leaving us with a net balance of over $10,000.00.

We are preparing to enter upon a broader field of usefulness, in that we are enlarging our housing equipment and getting ready to house and care for a larger number of the unfortunate children of our State who have been deprived of parental support and protection. And in our building plans we are preparing to modernize our plant and bring it strictly up to date. Its present value is close to $100,000.00.

The outlook of the Louisiana Methodist Orphanage is bright and brim full of promise of usefulness and helpfulness for the helpless orphan children of the State.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors, Rev. R. W. Vaughan, our most admirable superintendent, was re-elected for another year, with the recommendation that his appointment be affirmed by the Bishop. And the following members of this Board whose terms have expired were re-elected, viz.: R. O. Randle, C. B. Carter and R. B. Webb; and B. F. Roberts, of Shreveport, was elected in the place of Dr. G. S. Sexton, whose term has expired. The Board asks that the election of these members be confirmed by the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

S. D. PEARCE, President.

To the Hon. S. D. Pearce, President, and Members of the Board of Directors, Louisiana Methodist Orphanage, in Session, November 11, 1919, Ruston, Louisiana:

Dear Brethren—I hereby submit our annual report covering the year, November 1, 1918, to November 1, 1919, of our work in the Orphanage.

The year marks another and decided advance along every line of our operations, and indicates a much larger and more useful institution than we have ever had. The interest in our work over the State is more active and widespread, and the generous support we have received has been hearty and enthusiastic. We confidently believe we are on the border of larger and greater things for our work, and that we will rapidly advance to magnitudes far beyond the fondest hopes of the founders of our great work. We are now assured that in the minds and hearts of the people of Louisiana our institution occupies a favorable and permanent place.

We have had under our care during the year 154 children. Of this number we have placed 14, three have left of their own accord, and one died. We now have 136 children under our supervision; 130 in the home and six outside. We have four girls in training at the Louisiana Sanitarium in Shreveport, one recuperating her health at The Pines, and one filling in as teacher until the summer term, when she will finish her course in the Industrial.

About the usual degree of progress for our children has been maintained in their school work, and we are doing what we can to mold their characters into strong, stalwart Christians.

We have escaped all epidemics of disease during the year, and our children have maintained a degree of health that has been most gratifying. We suffered during the summer the first fatal accident that has ever occurred among the children in the Institution. Little Hazel Pixley, a child about four years of age, playing on the banisters of the stairway lost her balance and fell to the concrete floor beneath, sustaining injuries from which she soon died.

The demands on us to take children who are homeless and in distress have been very great during the year, and proportionately to the number of appeals we have taken fewer children than during any other year. This is due to the fact that we do not have the room, but hope soon to be relieved of this need so that we may care for more children.

The incessant rains during the planting season prevented us from accomplishing very much in our agricultural enterprises, and the heavy rains during the harvesting season brought to us the same heavy losses suffered by all farmers throughout the country. Still we have made a good potato crop and our cane is very good. Other crops were almost a failure.

Financially we have had the best year in our history, as will be seen by an examination of the following Financial Statement. The responses to our appeal for Easter, in spite of the tremendous Centenary Campaign that was absorbing the enthusiastic efforts of all our people, was far greater than ever before. Although we suffered a most disastrous day, from the weather standpoint, for our "Work Day," the returns have been most gratifying and almost equal to that of any other year.

I am pleased to submit the following Financial Report:

There being no liabilities, the above amount, approximately, $95,000.00, represents our actual worth.

We carry fire insurance to the amount of $30,000 and a tornado policy for $15,000, with all premiums paid.

Your committee for the new building funds have been active, and in the face of many discouragements have secured in cash and subscriptions approximately $75,000. The committee of inspection made an extended tour in the east visiting a number of the most progressive and best-equipped institutions in the land, and have secured ideas and methods which we trust will be of inestimable value to the future of our institution.

Already we have begun the erection of our Service Building, and when finished and fully equipped will be of very great help to us in carrying on our work. We will have a complete laundry equipment, a new and effective heating system, a mattress factory, and other features of value to such a work.

We face the future with confidence and hope. At no time has the interest in our work been greater, or have our people been more liberal. We believe they have caught a vision of the vast possibilities of this great task, and now propose to so fit and equip our plant that we shall soon be performing this task in a measure fitting to the standards of our great church and people. The long cry of the homeless child is being heard. The imperative need of the dependent children is being realized. The adaptability of the Christian religion to this peculiar task is being felt, and the responsibility and burden of the task, we firmly believe, will be fully met by our great-hearted people.

We would urge that you again ask that the Conference set aside Easter Sunday in the spring and "Work Day" in the fall as special days when collections for our cause shall be taken in all our churches and Sunday schools for our work. We further suggest that our preachers be requested to lend what assistance they can to our campaign for funds for the building and equipment of our work.

Thanking you again for your devotion to our work, and fully appreciating the hearty sympathy and co-operation you so gladly give to the superintendent and his co-workers in their efforts, and trusting God for his continual guidance in this arduous but noble task, I am,

Your faithful servant,

ROBT. W. VAUGHAN,
Superintendent Louisiana Methodist Orphanage.

Ruston, La., November 7, 1919.

MEMOIRS.

REV. THOMAS SCOTT RANDLE.

Death has again invaded the ranks of our sacred brotherhood and smitten one of our honored veterans. A brother beloved has gone.

"Friend after friend departs;
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts,
That finds not here an end."

Brother Thomas Scott Randle was born in Natchez, Miss., October 17, 1842. His father, Rev. Richmond Randle, was a member of the Mississippi Annual Conference at the time, and afterward became a charter member of the Louisiana Conference. His mother, Mary A. (Scott) Randle was a very devout woman. It could only be expected that from such a Christian atmosphere a boy would be good while young and would become religious early in life. Such was the case with Brother Randle. He made a definite decision and joined the church at thirteen years of age, but did not experience conversion until eighteen years old. He was then a soldier in the Confederate Army. The experience came to him while he was praying by a pine tree, and he ever after that had a definite Christian experience.

The following tribute by his twin, and only brother, Rev. Robert Randle, is a worthy testimonial to his Christian integrity, and steadfastness, as well as to his efficiency in the ministry. His brother says:

"He was a Christian from childhood. He professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the close of his thirteenth year, and through school, in the army, at home and in a ministry of 46 years, he continued a faithful, consistent Christian; among friends, strangers, or enemies, he remained steadfast. He was a brave citizen, soldier and Christian. He was as pure a man as I have ever seen, at home, at school or in the army. I never heard or saw an unchaste, mean or low word or act from him. He was a good and an efficient preacher, at times strong and eloquent."

Brother Randle was admitted on trial in the Louisiana Conference in 1873 and served the following charges: 1874, Floyd; 1875-76, Lind Grove, now Bonita; was ordained Deacon and admitted into full connection, 1875; 1877, Rayville; ordained Elder, 1877; 1878-79, Winnsboro; 1880, Mooringsport; 1881, Oak Ridge; 1882, Plaquemine and Gross Tete; 1883-84, Vermillionville, now Lafayette; 1885, Pleasant Hill; 1886, Lind Grove; 1887-88-89, Oak Ridge; 1890, Lake Providence; 1891-92-93, Opelousas; 1894-95, Lafayette and Rayne; 1896 to 1899, inclusive, superannuated; 1900-01, Wesley circuit; 1902, Zwolle; 1903, Fort Jessup and Many; 1904-05, Pleasant Hill; 1906-07, Eros; 1908, Lanesville, now Sibley; 1909-10-11, Gilbert; superannuated 1911 and retained that relation until his death.

He was married to Miss Sallie Ross, daughter of Major E. W. K. Ross, Bastrop, La., August 6, 1867. They had born to them eight children. Three of the children and his faithful wife are left to mourn his loss. Brother Randle was a consecrated, sweet spirited man. His life in his own home, as well as everywhere else, was as nearly above reproach as any one I have ever known. Brother Randle was not only a good preacher, he was also a good revivalist. After his father's death it is said his mother prayed daily that God would lay his hand upon her two boys, call them into the ministry and endue them with the Holy Spirit to take up the work of their father. They both believed that in answer to their mother's prayers they were divinely called.

He preached the great truths of the Gospel with such fervor and such loud tone of voice that he might truly, as were the sons of Zebedee, have been called a "son of thunder." His preaching was effectual and many were brought into the Kingdom through his ministry. It is said that the hardest duty we have, is not to do but to suffer God's will or to be patient in time of suffering. Brother Randle seemed to have this grace and self control. He was a sufferer a long time before he went away, but he leaned upon the "Everlasting Arms" and was sustained unto the end.

John Wesley said "Methodists die well" and truly they do when they live well by faith. Brother Randle was no exception. He often said I have hope in "Jesus Christ my Savior." Is it any wonder his death was triumphant? Sister Randle reports that two days before his death when they thought the end was at hand, she said: "Papa the old ship has come and Jesus is the captain and our departed children are on it to accompany you home." He said: "Yes the ship has come with flags all unfurled."

His last words were words to his son, expressing the hope that he would be a blessing to the world. He gently "fell on sleep" in Yoakum, Texas, January 23, 1919, leaving this message: "God bless all the dear brethren and friends in Louisiana and Texas. Tell them I wanted to be with them once more; but I will be at the roll call up yonder. Thank them for being so kind to us."

May his mantle fall on his sons and his memory be a benediction to all.

"Soldier of Christ well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Savior's joy."

A. S. J. NEILL.

REV. V. D. SKIPPER.

Rev. Virgil D. Skipper was born in Clarke County, Ala., December 9, 1853. His parents, John W. Skipper and Martha J. Skipper (nee Stanford), moved to Stewart County, Ga., when he was an infant. In his boyhood days he attended the common country school during the summer months and worked on the farm the balance of the year. When he was nineteen years of age his father sent him to a good school where he learned rapidly because he applied himself diligently. When attending this school he was converted. Soon after his conversion he felt a call to preach, which he kept to himself; but it grew on him clearer and clearer for eight years. During this time he was a class-leader, would pray in public and occasionally make little talks in the prayer and class meetings. He was a school teacher and taught in both public and private schools.

On the 27th of July, 1881, he was licensed to preach. At this time, he was living near old Spring Church, within the bounds of the De Kalb Circuit in the Mississippi Conference. After two years as a local preacher, he was admitted on trial in the Mississippi Conference, at Crystal Springs, Miss., in December, 1882.

His appointments have been as follows: Brandywine Circuit, 1883 and 1884; Meadville Circuit, 1885, 1886 and 1887; Mayersville Circuit, 1888 and 1889; Rocky Springs Circuit, 1890; Walnut Grove Circuit, 1891; Sharon Circuit, 1892 and 1893; Clinton Station, La., 1894; Homer Station, La., 1895; presiding elder of the Alexandria District, 1896, 1897 and 1898; Louisiana Avenue Church, in New Orleans, 1899; New Iberia Station, 1900. In August of 1900, Bishop Galloway transferred him back to the Mississippi Conference and stationed him at Edwards, Miss., where he spent the balance of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902 and 1903. He was stationed at Morton in 1904, West End, in Meridian, in 1905, Hazlehurst in 1906, and Wesson Station in 1907.

In 1908, Bishop Key transferred him to the Missouri Conference and appointed him to Canton Station in Northeast Missouri. The climate was too cold for him; so in 1909, he was transferred to the Louisiana Conference and was stationed at Mer Rouge.

He was stationed at Leesville in 1910, 1911 and 1912; at Tallulah in 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916; then back to Leesville in 1917 and 1918.

After thirty-six years of continuous service, finding himself afflicted and his strength failing, he was granted a superannuate relationship at the 1918 Conference. Brother Skipper was a most remarkable preacher. Some of his sermons were masterpieces and people would ask to have them repeated time and again. He assisted in a great many revivals and a large number joined the church under his ministry.

On the Sunday night prior to his death, he had a glorious vision of Heaven. It was during the hour of evening worship and the song "More Like the Master" was being sung across the street at the Presbyterian Church. He heard the music and in his feeble voice took up the strain and sang two verses. He said he saw the glories of God, the pearly gate wide open, and his loved ones calling him to come. He said, "Help me up and let me go; it is enough. I have suffered long enough." Thus he lingered as a patient sufferer until Friday, July 11, 1919, when he passed away and entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God. He was buried at Hazlehurst, Miss., on Saturday, July 12, 1919. He leaves a widow and three children to mourn their loss.

REV. ARCHIE COLUMBUS HOLDER.

Rev. Archie Columbus Holder was born July 19, 1874, at Shiloh, Tenn. When eleven years of age he was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. And while quite young he felt the divine call to preach the gospel. The assurance that this call was from God decided him for his life work. After years of study, he graduated from the Cumberland University with A. B. and Ph. D. degrees.

He joined the Memphis Conference and served as pastor for five years. Was transferred by Bishop Morrison to the Louisiana Conference in 1904, and served as pastor in the Louisiana Conference for five years. He then located to go into the Evangelistic Work and labored for ten years as general evangelist in the M. E. Church, South, making a total of twenty years in the ministry. Brother Holder believed the Bible as our fathers did. He had no patience with destructive, higher criticism. He preached repentance, faith and conversion.

Brother Holder was a true devoted husband and father. He died as he lived, busy in the Master's work. I heard him preach only once. I think his text was "I know in whom I have believed." This seemed to be his positive experience and it brought to him joy and peace? The narrow stream is crossed, burdens layed aside, palms of victory he waves, and a crown of glory he wears.

MRS. MARY COWAN FOX.

Mrs. Mary Cowan Fox, wife of Rev. George Fox, was born near Franklin, Tenn., on July 25, 1879. She belonged to a distinguished family, which had played a prominent part in affairs of church and state in the days when formative influences were shaping the civilization that has made the South the stronghold of unalloyed patriotism and of devout religious faith.

Mrs. Fox was a woman of liberal education. After attending the schools of the community in which she was reared, she entered Peabody College for Teachers, in Nashville, Tenn., from which she was graduated in due time. After her graduation she came to Louisiana and taught in the schools at Donaldsonville, Breaux Bridge, Vidalia, Eros and Bastrop. She had previously taught in some of the schools of her native state. It was while teaching in Bastrop, La., that she met Rev. George Fox, a member of the Louisiana Conference, whom she married in September, 1912.

It was the privilege of the writer to know Sister Fox in the intimate fellowship of the home circle, and, for a short while, in the active work of the church. It would have been impossible so to know her without being impressed by her utter devotion to the welfare of her family and to the great spiritual interests of the community in which she lived. She was a Methodist by training and by conviction, and religion was a normal part of her daily life. She was in complete accord with the polity and doctrines of her church. She was profoundly interested in every movement under its auspices that looked to the extension of the kingdom of God, and she never spared herself in the accomplishment of the tasks that she so willingly undertook in behalf of the cause she loved. The success of the Centenary Movement in her own church was due largely to her unremitting, intelligent and consecrated efforts.

The death of Sister Fox, at Bunkie, La., on July 15, 1919, came as a great shock, not only to the community in which she lived, but also to other communities where she had labored so diligently and so effectively with her husband in his work as a faithful and loyal Methodist itinerant; but the blow was tempered by the thought that a godly woman, having wrought nobly as a wife, mother, and servant of Christ, had gone to receive a rich reward on high. Those who knew her intimately spoke of her as the embodiment of the ideal in the peculiarly delicate and responsible relationship of the parsonage home. Her memory is as precious ointment in the communities where she lived her life of service.

MRS. R. S. ISBELL.

Mrs. Mary Kay Isbell, wife of Rev. R. S. Isbell, died at Columbia, La., on Sunday, March 30, 1919, at 3:20 p. m. She was 79 years and 2 months old. A long and useful life was lived by this remarkable woman. She was educated in the State of Kentucky, and twenty-six years of her life was given to the education of the youth of the Southland. For twenty-three years she experienced the anxiety and hardships of an itinerant preacher's wife but ever loved and was loyal to the itinerancy. She was a faithful and deeply consecrated member of the Methodist Church. Her chief joy in life was her devotion to her Lord. She was a sufferer from rheumatism for a number of years, but patiently bore her sickness until she "fell asleep in Jesus."

She was laid to rest in the cemetery at Columbia, La. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. J. Warlick who paid a beautiful tribute to her sterling work.

ALBERT S. LUTZ.

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS.

To the Ministers and Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Dear Brethren: We, the chief pastors of our beloved church, charged to "watch for your souls as they that must give account," that we may do it "with joy and not with grief," feel constrained at this time to address you concerning a matter which we judge to be of supreme importance and urgent necessity to our church, our country and all the world, under the conditions which confront mankind in this momentous hour of human history.

At all times we would be ever mindful of the apostolic charge laid upon us that we give heed unto ourselves and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost has made us overseers, to feed the church of God which he hath purchased with His own blood, and, at the present moment, this weighty and solemn responsibility is felt so keenly by us that we are impelled to make to you, upon whom rests the same burden of holy obligation, a communication concerning the great matter which fills our souls with reference to a revival of religion in our own country and in all lands. On this subject we addressed you from our last meeting, but our solicitude concerning it is so deep we cannot forbear speaking to you again with even greater earnestness than before.

It is noteworthy that great visitations of grace in former days have fallen upon God's church at the same times that great providential movements have come to pass. "In the dispensation of the fullness of time" came our Lord in the flesh, and with Pentecostal power he sent forth the agents of the Primitive Church to save a sad and sinful world from utter ruin and despair, when the combined forces of Jewish religion, Grecian philosophy, and Roman law had culminated in a situation which prepared the way for the life-giving evangel which those agents preached.

In like manner the spiritual and providential forces of heaven moved in divinely directed conjunction during the days of Luther and the Reformers. That great revival of apostolic Christianity and the discovery of America were not accidentally brought together in that world-renewing period.

So also out of revival centers in Great Britain (mainly in England) God sent forth the first settlers of the North American colonies. They were led of the Spirit into the wilderness, that by temptation and trial and heavenly succor a nation might be brought forth in whom all the families of the earth might be blessed in these last days. Indeed, it is a remarkable fact, the rise of the English speaking nations to their present commanding position of obligation and opportunity has been coetaneous with great revivals which have prevailed among them at every epochal turn in their history, from the days of the reformers to this good hour. And the history of our country has been marked especially by the saving power of such blessed visitations. The effect of the "Great Awakening" in 1740, the influence of the Wesleyan Revival in America, the far reaching results of the "Revival of 1800," and the saving power of the "Revival of 1858" have entered as most powerful factors into the making of this Republic. The nation has been a nation saved by grace, and might well adopt the language of the Hebrew Psalmist and say, "Thou hast given me the shield of thy salvation; and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great." (Ps. xviii, 35.)

In view of all our past history, would it not be a strange and disappointing thing, if now, when the ends of the earth have come upon us, no such heavenly power as that which came upon our fathers should fall upon us who have inherited from them such blessings and opportunities as we possess? Would it not argue some departure from God upon our part which had forfeited His favor and grieved His Spirit? Could we explain it by affirming that the God whose visitations of grace have so greatly enriched and invigorated the English speaking nations in all the days of their lives, has in our day withdrawn His saving purposes concerning them and that His mercies toward them are clean gone forever? Nay, we must believe that He who is the same yesterday, to-day and forever, will return to them even as He came to their fathers when they returned to Him.

Nevertheless, we are constrained to confess with sorrow that as yet there are no convincing tokens of the coming of such a widespread work of grace as those visitations which blessed the generations who have gone before us. Local revivals have come, and in all such genuine works of the Holy Spirit we rejoice and for them we give thanks to God. But their fires have not spread, and in most cases their flames have gone out all too quickly.

The English speaking nations, especially our own country, need in this hour of the world's distress, disquietude and confusion, a great revival of religion as widespread as the Reformation and as powerful and purifying as that which came to them in the days of the Wesleys and Whitefield. Nothing less can save us at this momentous hour in human history. Even men of the commercial world, in which it is so easy to forget and ignore spiritual things, declare with emphasis that a revival of religion is the supreme need of this nation, and well they may; for if we forsake God, we cannot, with all our wealth and power, escape the doom of the nations which forget Him. The bare possibility of such a dreadful doom is enough to alarm the most careless and worldly souls among us, and it cannot be averted unless there be a speedy and hearty turning of the people to God.

What do we see around us? On all hands we observe a riotous covetousness and a ravenous greed which sets neighbor against neighbor, and class against class, filling the land with bitter strife that threatens the stability of government and the very existence of social order. Sober-minded men, who view with clear eyes present-day conditions, will no more accuse us of a faithless pessimism for thus speaking than they would charge St. Paul with hopeless despair when he warned Timothy of perilous times when men would be "lovers of themselves," "covetous," "boasters," "proud," "blasphemers," "unthankful," "unholy," "lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God." (II Timothy iii, 1-7.)

We cannot conceal from ourselves, nor withhold from you, that we note also a distressing decay of family religion. Family altars have fallen down, and their fires have gone out in multiplied thousands of the homes of our people. Children are born, grow to years of maturity, and go forth from parental homes to the temptations of after life, without the habit of prayer, and without the blessed memory of holy hands lifted daily by pious parents in supplications for them. Who can over-state the immeasurable loss thus sustained by the children of prayerless households? The family is the unit of civilization, and any genuine revival of religion must turn the heart of the fathers to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers.

We fear that many have become so addicted to pleasure, and so unused to prayer, that the words of Job concerning the godless might be applied justly to them: "They send forth their children like a flock, and their children dance. They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ; they spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down into the grave. Therefore, they say unto God, depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways. What is the Almighty that we should serve Him? And what profit should we have if we pray unto Him?" (Job xxi, 11-15.)

We should be less than just and faithful, if we failed to express the fear that the ministry has not wholly escaped the worldly influences prevalent in these times of abounding opulence. It would be gratifying and surprising if such were not the case. "Like people, like priest," however, is a maxim which has had frequent melancholy ex-emplication since the days of Moses. (Hos. iv, 9.) When the people fall under the spell of wordliness and wickedness, their priests and prophets are likely to be touched by the same unholy spirit. Then doctrine becomes corrupt, moral standards low, and spiritual life feeble. If such a state is long continued, the number of ministers is diminished, and the prophetic voices become few. So it was in the prosperous and worldly day of Solomon's reign in Israel, and so it is beginning to be in our country. The fundamental truths of God's Word concerning sin, repentance, faith, the new birth, sanctification, and the witness of the Spirit, are too much neglected in the pulpits of the land, while current topics usurp their place, and programmes of naturalism are substituted for the saving power of the gospel of Christ. Schemes for ameliorating physical conditions occupy attention in some instances to the exclusion of the redemption which is in Jesus Christ; and the number of preachers begins to show a decrease in many sections of the church. Under such conditions our hearts are burdened, and we trust the hearts of many of you also are burdened, for the salvation of all the people.

As Jesus Christ is in the world, so are we in the world "to seek and save that which is lost." Our ears will not be deaf to the voices of the needy when they cry, nor will our hands be slow to stretch forth in compassionate ministry for their relief. But their supreme need, and the supreme need of all souls, is God and His salvation, revealed and imparted by the Holy Ghost. That will solve all perplexing problems, soothe all the sorrows of a grief-stricken world and purge away the wickedness which disturbs the peace and threatens the welfare of mankind.

But we cannot have such a revival of religion, if we seek it with any lower end than that we may know God through Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath brought salvation down. Nor can we substitute for such a knowledge of God anything else.

We rejoice in the enlarged liberality of our people. Their generous gifts to the great enterprises of the church and their contributions to many other benevolent causes fill us with devout thanksgiving to Almighty God who hath enriched them with abundance of goods and enabled them to do all these worthy things. But we should beware that we boast not of our offerings nor fall short of that humility which moves men of faith, after they have done all things commanded them—to say in the presence of God, "we are unprofitable servants; we have done that which was our duty to do." (Luke xvii, 10.)

Above all, we must lay to heart the teaching of the Apostle Paul that though one bestow all his goods on benevolent projects and give his body to be burned, it will profit him nothing, if his heart be not right with God. We should not forget when we are disposed to be proud of our offerings that it was when the Jewish people were practicing a system of tithing which descended to pot plants even, and filled their ecclesiastical treasury to overflowing fullness, they forgot God and turned His house into a house of merchandise. Out of the plethoric funds of the church were drawn the pieces of silver which purchased the betrayal of our Lord.

Our people having brought their offerings to the altar, we now pray that they may give themselves also wholly to God. That offering of themselves, and that offering only, will bring upon them the Pentecostal flames from above, which will attest their acceptance with God and fill them with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

Such a consecration of themselves must and will involve deep conviction of sin, hearty repentance towards God, and true faith in Jesus Christ our Lord. It will mean agonizing to enter in at the strait gate. It cannot be brought to pass by mere human plans and programmes, but must be the result of the convincing and saving power of the Holy Ghost, who alone is the administrator of God's will in redemption. It is to be feared that amid the complex machinery of modern society we may overestimate the power of our plans and underestimate our absolute dependence upon the Spirit of God. For the consummation of a material enterprise, even an ancient servant of God was warned that this task to be done "not by might, nor by power, but by the divine Spirit." (Zechariah iv, 6); and a great preacher of our own times has uttered recently the timely words that to "achieve spiritual results our fathers agonized, but we their children organize." Let us take heed that we do not dishonor the Holy Ghost, and "burn incense to our net and worship our drag."

Our hearts' desire and prayer to God is that He may pour upon us all the power of the Holy Ghost, and bring to us a mighty revival of repentance, faith and holy living. Therefore, most earnestly we call upon all the ministers and members of our church to unite with us in prayer and labor to this end.

We do not forget that such an awakening must begin in the ministry, ourselves included. So all revivals of religion in all ages of the world, have begun. So it was with the fathers of our Methodism, and so must it be with their successors in the church of to-day. We who have been called and ordained to the ministry of the Word must keep this truth ever uppermost in our minds, and be careful that in purity of doctrine and holiness of life we be meet for the Master's use, and prepared unto every good work. (II Tim. ii, 21.) The Holy Spirit will not work through men who are unsound in doctrine, feeble in faith, worldly in spirit and lax in life. Our first duty, therefore, is to take heed unto ourselves and unto the doctrine, continuing in them; for in so doing we shall both save ourselves and them that hear us. Wherefore we entreat our brethren to unite with us in self-examination to see if we be in the faith, to the end that there be nothing in our hearts, or lives which hinders our closest communion with God, or retards our growth in grace.

In former days it was the habit of Methodist preachers to give much time to the study of the Scriptures, meditation and prayer; but the multitude of material affairs of the church nearly usurps all our preachers' time and diverts their thought from the most vital matters. We can find no reason why our laymen, as intelligent as they are, should not take charge of all the material affairs of the church that the preachers may give themselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the Word, and we exhort our laymen to assume these cares both for their own benefit and the relief of their preachers.

It was also a custom with our early preachers to preach on those doctrines which call men to repentance and to faith, such as sin, repentance, confession, justification, regeneration, holiness, the atonement, future rewards, and future punishments, and to follow their preaching with calls to the altar of prayer, or to unite with the church, or to make open confession of Christ. God wonderfully blessed them in their work, and we beseech you that this custom be revived among us. And also let our Sunday school superintendents and teachers give frequent opportunity for the scholars publicly to seek the prayers of the church for their salvation. Likewise, let all our stewards examine themselves to know if truly they are men of solid piety and examples to their families and the church. We are not opposed to seasons of revival when special efforts are made. On the contrary, we heartily believe in them; yet we pray for that degree of consecration which makes the spirit of evangelists the dominant and enduring spirit of our whole church, not only on the Sabbath and at special seasons, but at all times and in all our work.

We should not be satisfied with anything less than that all our people come into a satisfactory experience of the new birth by the Holy Spirit. The increase of members in our churches ought not to be the ruling aim of our ministry, and any evangelistic efforts that aim chiefly at this result are not to be commended.

The spiritual conditions which now give us grief have arisen largely out of such mistaken aims, together with a habit of too hastily receiving members into full connection with the church. We should give instruction to all candidates for membership, praying with them and guiding them until they come into a knowledge of God's forgiveness of sin and are truly prepared to assume the vows which we administer to all who unite with us. It is not an increase of numbers we seek, but renewed souls in Christ Jesus.

Upon no other grounds will any person enter the Kingdom of God, and we dare not allow any person under our pastoral protection to be deceived in this supreme matter.

While we do not think it appropriate for us to suggest to you a fixed plan of evangelistic work, knowing that the Holy Spirit is the guide of all who truly commit their ways unto the Lord, yet we do not deem it amiss to remind you, as we remind ourselves also, that in all things we must be wholly obedient unto the will of God as he has revealed it in Christ Jesus and through His holy prophets and apostles.

Let us hold fast and obey the teachings of the Holy Scriptures; the first of which we must magnify is the Lordship of the Holy Spirit, as the only executor of the mind of God in His church. He only endows us with power, gives spiritual light, reveals the things of God, shows us the things of our exalted Lord, convicts of sin, and righteousness, and judgment, brings forth new creatures in Christ Jesus, guides saints, distributes gifts, and accomplishes all the ends of redeeming love. Let us not in any degree grieve Him, but be obedient unto His will, and by an undivided devotion to the Master become effective agents of His saving grace.

Let us faithfully preach the Word, which contains sufficiently all doctrines required of necessity for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ.

Let us put aside all strife, and divisions, and contentions, and, speaking the same word, dwell in Christ as members of one body.

Let us frequently relate our experiences, remembering that we are witnesses of Christ. For this reason we earnestly request that the love feasts and the class meeting be restored, and that we often speak one with another concerning our spiritual condition and welfare, especially taking oversight of the young Christians that they may be encouraged in their lives and strengthened in their faith.

Let us in patience and love admonish all who do not walk in the way of the Lord, giving no place to sin in any form, constantly exhorting such to seek the highest estates of grace, that they may be unto the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We are persuaded that concerning all else you and we shall be taught of the Holy Spirit, that our labors may redound to the glory of God in the salvation of sinners. Pray for us, as we cease not to pray for all of you, making request unto the Father of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, that we may fill our office unto the ministry of the Spirit, and in faith and labors be true examples of the grace of God and faithful overseers of His flock. "Now, the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever."

MRS. M. C. MANLEY.

Mrs. M. C. Manley, nee Lina Amis, was born in Arkansas, the date not known, and died in Rayne, Louisiana, June 19, 1919.

After the death of her parents during her early childhood, she became an inmate of the home of her sister, Mrs. Mark Manley, wife of a Methodist preacher. Her girlhood and young womanhood were spent in this home, until the death of Mrs. Manley.

Several years after her sister's death, Miss Amis married her brother-in-law, and from the time of her marriage in 1890 till her husband's death in 1902 she was a devoted wife and helpmeet.

After Brother Manley's death her life was never the same. She did not seem able to throw off the grief and sadness of his going. A shadow appeared to settle over her heart and life that grew darker as the years sped by. She lost all interest in life and in church work, and the last few years of her life were clouded by a strange mental affliction that caused her to turn from all friends and relatives.

Her pastor, Rev. C. E. Fike, accompanied by her son, Bernard Manley, whom she and Brother Manley had adopted, brought her body to Opelousas and laid it to rest beside by Brother Manley in a lot set aside for preachers. Here, after life's fitful fever, she sleeps well.
